1. Prior to about 17 January 1954, a conference attended by officers of KVP units stationed in the Pasewalk area was held at the barracks installation in Pasewalk. The alert status scheduled to be decreed on 21 January was allegedly discussed at this conference. On 18 and 19 January, conferences attended by 80 to 100 persons were continuously held at the officers' club of the barracks installation. 1
 2. Since 21 January, all KVP units stationed in the Torgelow and Eggesin area have been on alert status. 100 trucks were dispatched to Torgelow in early January 1954. After 22 January, police patrols were increased in Pasewalk. At night, these patrols were re-inforced by SED members. Railroad installations were guarded. 1
 - 25X1 3. numerous Soviet advisors and their dependents had left Pasewalk toward Frankfurt/Oder. They were replaced by other Soviet officers who arrived with their dependents from the USSR. 2
 - 25X1 1. Comment. The statement on the alert status of KVP units in Pasewalk agrees with previous information. The trucks mentioned were probably furnished by the Soviets.
 - 25X1 2. Comment. The rotation of Soviet advisors attached to KVP units was started as early as last summer.
